PLAYER IN LUCK

Jimmy Walsh.

Though Connie Mack still wallows in the slough of Despond the luck of the players he made famous continues. The latest instance is the case of Outfielder Jimmy Walsh, who has been transferred to the Boston Red Sox in payment for Catcher Pat Haley and thus gets in line for a chance at more world's series gold and glory.

BEAVERS LOSE TO
OAKLAND 3 TO 2

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—Give Bill Rodgers and Chuck Ward a better understanding as to which is to cover the bag and which is to do the backing up on a throw across the diamond from the backstop and the Beavers will stand a chance of winning more games. At all events, it was one of those misunderstandings between coexecutors of the keystone sack that gave Oakland the all-important run in a 3-2 session yesterday, evening the series with a joust apiece for the league tallenders.

It was anybody's race right up close to the finish. Leading by two runs when the ninth opened, Bill Prough of the Oaks was laced by Williams for a home run, Rodgers nicked him for a double right on top of that. And all with only one down. The rally died because a brace of pinch hitters fell down.

In the seventh the Oaks staked their win, aided and abetted by the Ward-Rodgers fox pass. Middleton singled and stole second. Murphy shot a mean one through short. Middleton scored. There was nobody home at second and he kept right on to third. Then old Bill Lane came through and scored Murphy.

Those runs were needed. Williams then took a healthy swipe at the pill and propelled it over the boards.

SALT LAKE UTES
SEVERELY BEATEN

Vernon Cops Second Game
With Score 10 to 3—Mitchell on Mound for Tigers.

Yesterday's score: Vernon 10, Salt Lake 3.

Batteries: Vernon, Mitchell and Mitze; Salt Lake, Fittery, Hall and Sheely.

Probable batteries, today's game: Vernon, Hess and Mitze; Salt Lake, Fittery and Sheely.
Game at Majestic park starts at 3:30 o'clock.

Salt Lake, Sept. 21.—It grieves the chronicler to record that the Utes' attempt to retrieve themselves at Majestic park yesterday afternoon was not accompanied by great gobs of success. Vernon Fittery was sent out to the center of activities for the Utes and began to hurl the pellet. Paul was among those present for the first three innings. He was then chased away to make room for Bert Hall, who performed before a small representation of Salt Lake's baseball population for the remainder of the matinee.

The scorer's report shows that the responsibility for what happened is charged against Mr. Fittery.

The score was 10-3 in favor of Vernon. Lest there be some mistake, let's repeat, in favor of Vernon. It was the second joust of the series and likewise the second time that the Hampat crowd have been returned victors from the lists.

Mitchell pitched for Vernon and for the first five innings held the local club at his mercy. During this interim, he was touched for only two singles and both times the barmen died natural deaths on the bases. In the sixth, the Utes got to him for a brace of hits which brought in the first of their counters. In the eighth another pair of hits brought in another counter, while a single and double in the ninth completed the trio of runs scored by the local club. All told, the Utes managed to slam out ten bingles, but in most cases they came singly and were not productive of tallies.

Fittery allowed six hits while he lasted. During his short career on the mound seven runners crossed the pan, one in the first inning, three in the second and three in the third. He walked three in a row in the second, which bulged the bases and which finally resulted in all three scoring.

Bert Hall didn't make such a bad showing. Up to the eighth he kept the hits well scattered and not a single Vernomite completed the circuit. In the eighth, however, the Tigers got busy with the old sap stick and beat out two singles and a triple, which brought in three runs and completed the scoring in the Vernon camp for the afternoon.
